

The library is using a new cloud-based system for resource management. You can login to your account from the library's homepage (My Library Account), or from our new catalog.

Please follow these instructions for logging in to your account, or to use library resources off-campus.

For additional assistance please contact the circulation desk at: 619-660-4416, or the reference desk at 619-660-4421.

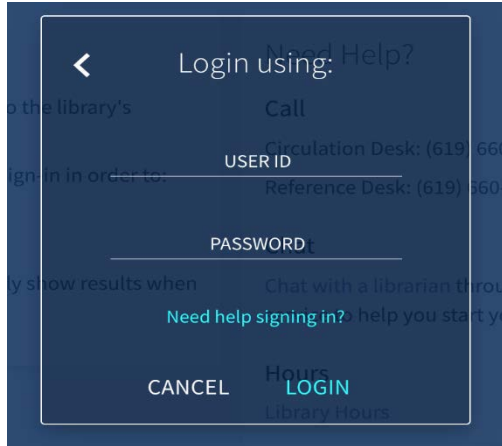

For Faculty and Staff:

Please select the Employee log in option.

You will be prompted to sign in as you do for your campus email account. Note a onetime, two-step verification process is in place; the first time you login you will be asked to enter a mobile number in order to receive a verification code via text message.

For Students:

Please select the Student log in option.

In order to login you will need your student ID number followed by @gcccd.edu (ex. 1234567@gcccd.edu), and your 8 digit birthday (ex. 01011995).

After you hit login you will be asked to enter the email address you have on file with Cuyamaca College.

An email will be sent to this address prompting you to change your password. Please use the “click here” link to change your password.
