In his new role as Executive Dean of Institutional advancement, Mr. Migala will have the responsibility of furthering the institutional advancement of the college through resource development, promoting college and community relations, and providing institutional support services. He will be coordinating the grants program and working with staff and faculty to identify and develop grant resources, in addition to serving as the liaison to the College Foundation, he will be the college's official Public Information Officer. Mr. Migala will also serve as the college's liaison to respective District committees.

COLLEGE HONORS AND NOTEWORTHY NEWS

- 2006-2007 ACADEMIC MASTER PLAN

Commendations are in order to the Academic Master Plan Committee for their excellent work on the Master Plan and to the academic departments for their diligent planning and wonderful accomplishments. The Academic Master Planning process is critical to the advancement of the institution and to ensuring the quality of the instructional program. This planning process, with its goals and resulting activities and outcomes, contributes to the overall success of our students in their courses and programs of study. Academic Master Plan Committee members are: Co-Chairs: Cristina Chiriboga and Susan Haber; Chuck Charter, Ed Cline, Jodi Reed, Jerry Riley, Patricia Santana, Pat Setzer, Larry Sherwood and Nanette Wier.

- 2006-2007 STUDENT DEVELOPMENT & SERVICES MASTER PLAN

Congratulations are in order to the Student Services Master Plan Committee for their hard work and service in the development of the divisional master plan. The Student Development & Services Master Plan for 2006-2007 is an integral part of the delivery of student services across the institution, as the plan provides institutional direction and assures that Cuyamaca College advances both the student services program and the College's Strategic Plan goals. Committee members are: Co-Chairs, Beth Appenzeller and Marsha Fralick; Mary Asher-Fitzpatrick, Cathy Bowyer, Poppy Bush, Gene Morones, Alicia Munoz, Ray Reyes, Bill Stanford and Al Taccone.

- FIRST-EVER CUYAMACA COLLEGE OPEN HOUSE

On June 24th, Cuyamaca College hosted its first-ever student Open House. The event was primarily for incoming freshmen and their parents. Information tables were staffed by many academic and student services departments with break-out sessions for application assistance, counseling and Financial Aid. Students and their families took a walking tour of the college and were treated to lunch. A number of students signed up to participate on athletic teams, and a number of parents completed applications to take classes. Several students indicated that they made their decision, that day, to attend Cuyamaca College. Many thanks to the High School and Community Outreach Department for organizing the event.

- NATIONAL AUTOMOTIVE TECHNICIANS EDUCATION FOUNDATION, INC. (NATEF) CERTIFICATION

The Automotive Technology received certification for the GM ASEP training program. The June 22nd, letter of certification read, in-part, "Your concern and hard work directed at automotive educational needs are evident by the quality of your program." Kudos to Chris Branton, Automotive Technology instructor and the faculty and staff of the Automotive Technology Department for their dedication to the Automotive Technology program.

- CHILD DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM STATE REVIEW – OUTSTANDING!

On May 25th, Mr. Francis Louie, Child Development Consultant from the State Department of Education, Child Development Division completed a review of the Cuyamaca College Child Development Center. He gave the center high marks in the areas of adult/child interactions between the staff and children, the extension of language, and language development. He noted that the children were quickly attended to and there were many appropriate activities for the children. He said the student-staff was excellent and he was impressed with the effective student-staff utilization. The Early Childhood Environmental Rating Scale (ECERS) performed on the Evergreen classroom had very high scores (mostly sevens which equal EXCELLENT). Kudos to Linda Haar, Child Development Center Director, the dedicated Child Development Center faculty, staff, and Dr. Marie Ramos, Division III Dean.

- ATHLETICS UPDATE

Women's Basketball: Amy Hoyt - receives double honors – Congratulations!

- ❖ 2005 – 2006 Cuyamaca College Women's Athlete of the Year
- ❖ Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) Woman Scholar - Athlete of the Year

Amy was selected for her athletic achievements, commitment to high scholastic performance, citizenship and leadership. Her PCC award distinguishes her as the top female athlete-scholar in a league of nine community colleges. She will represent the PCC and Cuyamaca College at the COA Awards Banquet in Sacramento, where she will qualify for the top California Community College Scholar-Athlete Award. Amy was all-league and team captain during the 2005 and 2006 seasons. Her academic accomplishments include the Dean's List, President's List; and she is a member of Phi Theta Kappa. She has been awarded an academic scholarship to Cornell College where she will continue her athletic career on the women's basketball team. Amy Hoyt will be honored by the Athletic Department with special trophies and awards prior to transferring.

Welcome James Gleboff, Cuyamaca's 2006 - 2007 Women's Basketball Coach

James is off to a terrific start with many activities aimed at student recruitment. James comes to Cuyamaca College with past coaching experience at both the high school and international level.

Men's Basketball and Track & Field: Congratulations to Michael Okenwa, 2005 – 2006 Cuyamaca College Men's Athlete of the Year

Michael received this award for participating on the men's basketball team and the men's track and field team in 2005 and 2006. As a high jumper, Michael placed in the top 10 in the state for 2005 and 2006. He has received an offer from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo.

Women's Track & Field: Congratulations to Michelle Thompson, 2005-2006 California State Women's Javelin Champion.

- RECYCLING – IT'S A GOOD THING!

In response to the passage of AB75, in 2000, Cuyamaca College established the Waste Management Ad Hoc Committee, with a charge to increase recycling efforts. AB75 required each state agency and each large state facility to divert at least 25% of generated solid waste from landfills by 1/1/02, and 50% by 1/1/04. As a result, Cuyamaca College is a 'single stream' facility, a term used to describe the recycling of all paper, cans, glass bottles, plastic and cardboard. Because Cuyamaca College sells its cardboard to Allen Co (a recycler), most of its recycled products are picked up at no cost. The college's yearly report to the State Integrated Waste Management Department indicated that 88.3% of generated solid waste was diverted from the landfills.
