Q5 Description of Request:When making your request, please be as specific as possible and include information such as make, model, manufacturer, color, quantity, etc.

Currently Engineering has only one room that serves as both lecture and lab space, and a tiny back room that is storage, prep room, and lab space. As we make our lectures more active and project based, we would like a room dedicated to just lecture that has at least a little storage so we can do cool demonstrations/projects in class. All we really need are some cabinets or a closet, and then the standard smart cart set up with tables or desks.

Q6 Estimated Cost:

No cost if we can just use a room.

Provided details::

We are trying to make our classroom more active, but this is hard when there are a bunch of computers and bulky tables and equipment in the way. Engineering is now big enough that we need at least two classrooms that we can be sure have all our equipment in them.
