

Vision Drafts from Cuyamaca College Council

Statement 1:

- Providing education that empowers students to change the world through equity, social justice, and community.
-- or
- Empowering students to change the world through equity, social justice, and community

Statement 2:

- Empowering our community to change the world through equity, social justice, and innovation.
-- or
- Empowering our community to change the world through equity, social justice, and innovative education.