Call for Nominations for the Outstanding Faculty Award

On behalf of the Academic Senate Awards Committee

The Outstanding Faculty Member award has been created to honor Cuyamaca College faculty members who have distinguished themselves in service to the college and its students outside of the classroom or office.

Nominations will be accepted until April 8, 2022 via Google form.

Please nominate a faculty member (instructional or student service), (full time and/or part time) who has demonstrated a commitment to the mission, vision, and values of Cuyamaca College by carrying out the following activities, and describe how the nominee meets each of the following criteria:

- 1) Contributions to Cuyamaca College outside of the classroom or office. (This may include development of a new program or working to significantly improve a current program; participating in or chairing various committees; or planning for future campus improvements.)
- 2) Contributions to Cuyamaca College student success and equity outside of the classroom or office. (This may include such things as student mentoring, involvement in student clubs or activities.)
- 3) Contributions to excellence in the community as a representative of Cuyamaca College. (This may include active participation in recognized community groups, working on a community project or volunteering in the community.)
- 4) Other ways not addressed above, that the faculty member has demonstrated outstanding service to Cuyamaca College. (This may include activities such as mentoring an intern or other faculty members, conducting professional development workshops, or advocating for the college and its students.)
