GROSSMONT-CUYAMACA
COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District Vision, Mission, Goals

Vision

Transforming lives through learning.

Mission

Provide outstanding diverse learning opportunities that prepare students to meet community needs, promotes global responsibility, and fosters opportunities for all.

- Outstanding undergraduate education for students seeking certificates, associate degrees, and university transfer;
- Excellent career and technical education programs that prepare students for workforce entry and advancement;
- Engaging educational services that meet learners' needs in basic skills, and English language proficiency;
- Comprehensive student development and personal support services that contribute to student learning and achievement;
- Partnerships and programs that promote the social and economic development of the region; and
- Community education for personal, professional, and lifelong learning.

Goals

- I. Create streamlined, student-centered pathways to educational goal completion
- II. Close achievement gaps by engaging individual students with diverse needs and removing structural barriers to their success
- III. Cultivate a student-centered culture of excellence, trust, stewardship, and service

Introduction

The Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District (GCCCD) recognizes the critical role and contribution of all members of the District community and is committed to cultivating an effective governance system that conveys the interrelationship of all parties in fulfillment of service to our students and community. The Governing Board, Chancellor, administrators, faculty, staff, and students are pledged to work cooperatively in a principled approach that respects the interests and responsibilities of all members of the District community. Our governance system supports participation and communication to strengthen the District's capacity to carry out its mission. Members of this District are united by the collective understanding that student learning and success is our primary mission.

To access council/committee meeting schedules and information go to the employee Intranet at <https://intranet.gcccd.edu/default.html>. Feedback and comments may be sent to the Chancellor's Office.

Governance Philosophy: Participatory Governance

Effective governance of any democratic organization relies on the individual and collective actions of those who come together for the purpose of governance. GCCCD adheres to a philosophy of participatory governance that engages primary institutional stakeholders in decision-making processes. These stakeholders generally include Board members, faculty, staff, administrators, students, and community members.

Successful participatory governance creates an environment of awareness and inclusion in which all members adhere to the following overarching goals:

- Maintain a unity of purpose
- Agree on and govern within appropriate roles
- Create and sustain a positive governance culture
- Establish policies, procedures, and practices that promote the institution's mission and strategic direction in serving the community
- Support an open and representative structure for opinions to be shared and considered
- Provide effective, timely responses to internal and external demands
- Assure accountability through a focus on evidence, transparency, and continuous improvement

This shared involvement does not always imply agreement and does not always require the same level of involvement by all stakeholders at all times; nevertheless, it always recognizes the ultimate responsibility for decisions with the Chancellor and the Board of Trustees.

Principles of Governance

Effective governance at GCCCD rests on a democratic partnership in which Board members, faculty, staff, administrators, and students commit to the following principles:

1. The Governing Board has final responsibility and authority for District policies and procedures; any individual may address the Board to share his/her opinions or concerns.
2. The Board charges the Chancellor with the responsibility for governance of the District; in turn, the Chancellor creates a structure and a systematic process for decision-making that allows for the effective participation of Board members, faculty, staff, administrators, students, and community.
3. Recommendations for decisions are made through the consultative processes involving appropriate councils and committees.
4. Representation is the cornerstone of good governance. Members of all campus constituencies – students, faculty, administration, and staff – are involved in the governance and future direction of the District through their representatives. Individual representatives are responsible for articulating the perspectives of the groups they represent, and, in turn, reporting back to their groups on the progress of issues. In addition, constituency representatives should make a sincere attempt to understand issues from a broad District perspective.
5. Effective governance is facilitated by extensive communication, timely and appropriate information, clearly noticed and accessible meetings, public deliberation, broad scale participation, published records, and regular evaluation of the quality and effectiveness of the governance structure and function.

Evaluation and Continuous Improvement

The District conducts periodic reviews and evaluation of its governance structure and function. Through two systematic review processes, one completed on an annual basis and one completed every three years, the District's Governance Handbook is maintained to reflect changes identified in the District's cycle of continuous quality improvement.

Annually: The handbook is reviewed each year by Chancellor's Office staff and council and/or committee members and updated to maintain accuracy. Review includes council/committee charge, composition, and meeting schedule.

Triennially: The effectiveness of the structures and processes described in the handbook are evaluated every three years as a part of the District's assessment of its planning processes. This assessment includes gathering districtwide feedback about the quality and effectiveness of the District's participatory governance process for review by the District Executive Council (DEC). DEC reviews this information and recommends revisions to the Chancellor. The updated handbook is presented to the Governing Board for review and approval.

Roles of Stakeholders in Participatory Governance

The stakeholders in GCCCD participate in making decisions at the District level appropriate in scope to their roles within the District. The role in making decisions for each constituency described below is derived from the California Code of Regulations and GCCCD board policies and administrative procedures. District policies and procedures and the relevant sections of the California Code of Regulations, Title 5, are included in the appendix of this document.

Governing Board

The Board of Trustees retains the ultimate responsibility for governance of the District. According to the Education Code, the locally-elected Governing Board takes responsibility for the following:

- Represents the public interest
- Sets policy direction
- Establishes the climate in which educational goals are accomplished
- Defines legal, ethical, and prudent standards for college and District operations
- Hires and evaluates the Chancellor
- Assures fiscal health and stability
- Delegates power and authority to the Chancellor to effectively lead the District
- Monitors institutional performance
- Advocates and protects the District

In carrying out these functions, the Governing Board provides for and encourages effective participation by employee and student representatives through its participatory governance processes. The Governing Board, as elected representatives of the community, is the final voice in the District (subject to the laws and appropriate regulations of the State Legislature and the Chancellor's Office). As a matter of professional respect, and as outlined in AB 1725, the Board will, if it rejects or modifies a recommendation proposed by the participatory governance procedure, return to the participatory governance committee(s) its objections to the proposal. It does this through its designee, the Chancellor.

Chancellor

Pursuant to District board policy, the Chancellor is the official designee of the Board, and is directly responsible to the Board. The Chancellor is given the authority and responsibility to administer the District and to assign designees to carry out participatory governance.

The Chancellor has the right to accept, reject, or modify any participatory governance recommendation. However, in the spirit of professionalism and collegiality, if the Chancellor does not accept a formal recommendation, he/she will inform the respective group and also inform the Board.

The Chancellor is the chief academic and administrative officer of the District, charged with providing strategic direction and leadership for the District. The Chancellor facilitates the participatory governance process by promoting a decision-making environment of inclusiveness, civility, honesty, fairness, and cooperation.

Chancellor's Cabinet

Members of Chancellor's Cabinet are involved in decisions made at the District level and articulate recommendations directly to the Chancellor in matters assigned in their job descriptions. In addition to making decisions at the campus level, the members of Chancellor's Cabinet serve as the primary advocates for their colleges/divisions at the District level for resource needs, policy issues, special projects, and the promotion of college/division goals. Members of Chancellor's Cabinet play a central role in executive leadership of the District. They contribute to administrative decisions to carry out the institutional mission and create an institutional culture reflecting District values of excellence, trust, stewardship, and service.

Administrators [Managers and Supervisors]

The role of administrators in decisions made at the District level is determined by the scope of responsibility and authority delegated in job descriptions for administrative positions.

The responsibility of District administrators includes the following:

- Provide effective leadership and support in planning and accreditation
- Implement and evaluate District objectives related to their area
- Adhere to the legal and ethical standards as well as policies established by the Board of Trustees
- Oversee the effective use of institutional resources
- Make recommendations concerning the hiring of personnel
- Make contributions to the development and improvement of all GCCCD functions
- Implement best practices and courses of action
- Assume responsibility for ensuring implementation of activities based on applicable recommendations and college goals
- Evaluate the effectiveness of activities in order to support and facilitate the educational process and ensure the institution's effectiveness
- Initiate new ideas and improvements, and promote quality and responsiveness in District operations
- Lead the units for which they are responsible, and make appropriate decisions
- The Administrators' Association is the sole organization responsible for appointing managers and supervisors to participatory governance councils and committees and screening/interview committees.

Administrators' Association shall also make appointments to councils, committees, and task forces for those groups specifying its representation regarding bargaining.

Faculty [Academic Senates]

The Academic Senate is the representative in participatory governance activities regarding academic and professional matters (Title 5, Section 53203 of the California Code of Regulations and board policy BP 2510 Participation in Local Decision-Making). The Grossmont College Academic Senate and the Cuyamaca College Academic Senate are established as separate bodies representing the faculty of the respective colleges. Faculty appointments to councils, committees, task forces, or other groups shall be made by the respective Academic Senates, except for those groups specifying American Federation of Teachers Guild representation.

As provided in BP 2510 Participation in Local Decision-Making, the Governing Board recognizes the authority of the Academic Senates with respect to academic and professional matters in accord with provisions of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations. The academic and professional matters on which the Board will rely primarily on the Academic Senates are as follows:

- Curriculum, including establishing prerequisites and placing courses within disciplines
- Degree and certificate requirements
- Grading policies
- Standards or policies regarding student preparation and success
- Faculty roles and involvement in accreditation processes, including self-studies and annual reports
- Policies for faculty professional development activities

The academic and professional matters on which the Board will seek mutual agreement with the academic/faculty senates are as follows:

- Educational program development and educational program discontinuance
- District and college governance structures as related to faculty roles
- Processes for program review
- Processes for institutional planning and budget development
- Other academic and professional matters as mutually agreed by the Board of Trustees and the senate(s)

The Academic Senates regularly submit items for Board approval via the Chancellor. These include bi-annual Curriculum Committee approvals, sabbatical leave recommendations, emeritus applications, and other academic and professional matters as listed above, upon which the Board either relies primarily upon or seeks mutual agreement with the Senates.

District councils and committees on which the Academic Senate has designated representatives include the following:

- District Executive Council
- District Strategic Planning & Budget Council
- District Coordinating Educational Council
- Human Resources Advisory Council
- Student Equity & Success Council
- Districtwide Public Safety & Emergency Preparedness Council
- District Institutional Effectiveness Committee
- Administrative Technology Advisory Committee
- Instructional Technology Advisory Committee
- Website Standards & Communications Committee
- Academic Calendar Committee
- Workforce Training Coordinating Committee
- Grossmont College Planning & Resource Council
- Cuyamaca College Council

Classified Professionals, including Confidential Executive Assistants [Classified Senate]

The Classified Senate takes an active role in collegial governance and effectively provides representation regarding non-bargaining-related issues involving classified professionals.

The Classified Senate promotes the interests of all Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District classified professionals in accordance with AB 1725 mandates. Board Policy 2510 Participation in Local Decision-Making, ensures classified professionals the opportunity to express their opinions at the District level and to ensure that these opinions are given every reasonable consideration, as well as the right to participate effectively in District and College governance.

The Classified Senate is comprised of diverse, committed, professional staff who support and reaffirm the District and College missions. Elected officers and senators serving on the Classified Senate value, advocate, and participate in a collegial governance process with faculty, administrators, and students as set forth by board policy.

The Classified Senate is organized to do the following in support of classified professionals throughout the District:

- Selects from its membership representatives to serve on employment screening and other participatory governance committees to ensure classified voices are heard.
- Participates on governance committees and councils to ensure inclusion in the development and formation of policy and procedure.
- Provides a body that represents the needs, concerns and viewpoints of the Classified Staff, as well as makes recommendations on their behalf, with the exception of contractual issues.
- Provides a centralized means of communication between Classified Staff and the rest of the district and community
- Provides an opportunity to develop individual leadership among the Classified Staff, as well as increase the professional standards of its members
- Promotes and supports the activities that develop or increase the skills, productivity and professionalism of the Classified Staff

District councils and committees with Classified Senate designees or representatives include the following:

- District Executive Council
- District Strategic Planning and Budget Council
- Student Equity & Success Council
- Human Resources Advisory Council
- District Services Council
- Districtwide Public Safety & Emergency Preparedness Council
- Technology Coordinating Council
- Academic Calendar Committee
- District Institutional Effectiveness Committee
- Benefits Committee
- Classification Committee—CSEA
- Grossmont College Planning and Resource Council
- Cuyamaca College Council

Students

The District recognizes and values the contributions of students in participatory governance. The following specific matters are identified in the California Code of Regulations, Title 5, Section 51023.7, as having a significant effect on students and calling for student contributions to decision-making:

- Grading policies
- Codes of student conduct
- Academic disciplinary policies
- Curriculum development
- Courses or programs that should be initiated or discontinued
- Processes for institutional planning and budget development
- Standards and policies regarding student preparation and success
- Student services planning and development
- Student fees within the authority of the District to adopt
- Any other District and college policy, procedure, or related matter that the District governing board determines will have significant effect on students

The Board recognizes the Associated Students of Grossmont College and the Associated Student Government of Cuyamaca College as the official voices for students in GCCCD. In accordance with Board Policy 2510 Participation in Local Decision-Making, the Associated Students are given an opportunity to participate effectively in the formulation and development of District policies and procedures that have a significant effect on them, and the recommendations and positions of the Associated Students are given reasonable consideration.

District councils and committees on which the students have designated representatives include the following:

- District Executive Council
- District Strategic Planning & Budget Council
- Districtwide Public Safety & Emergency Preparedness Council
- Student Equity & Success Council
- District Coordinating Educational Council
- District Institutional Effectiveness Committee
- Academic Calendar Committee
- Grossmont College Planning & Resource Council
- Cuyamaca College Council
- Website Standards & Communications Committee

Labor Groups

For matters related to compensation and working conditions, employees are represented by the following organizations:

- Faculty—American Federation of Teachers Guild, Local 1931
- Classified Staff—California School Employees Association, Chapter 707
- Administrators—Administrators' Association
- Confidential Administrators—meet and confer unit*
- Confidential Employees (Executive Assistants)—meet and confer unit*

A confidential employee is an employee of the District who, in the regular course of his/her duties, has access to confidential information that contributed to the development of management proposals and decisions with respect to employer-employee relations (Government Code Section 3540.1(c)). As such, they are not a bargaining unit, but rather a meet and confer unit.

*Confidential Employee groups are responsible for appointing representatives from the confidential administrators and confidential employees (Executive Assistants) for participatory governance councils/ committees.

Labor groups represent their members in contractual issues such as:

- Select members to serve on governance committees and councils specific to bargaining subjects
- Promote & protect rights of classified employees
- Wages, including salary schedule and placement, promotions, seniority, layoff and reemployment rights, initial classification and reclassification
- Hours of employment
- Health and welfare benefits, including holidays and vacations
- Leaves, transfers and reassignment policies
- Safety conditions of employment, including district-initiated disability leaves
- Procedures to be used for the evaluation of employees
- Procedures of processing grievances and disciplinary actions

District Councils and committees on which labor groups have designated representatives include the following:

- District Executive Council
- District Strategic Planning & Budget Council
- Student Equity & Success Council
- Technology Coordinating Council
- Human Resources Advisory Council
- Academic Calendar Committee
- Benefits Committee
- Grossmont College Planning & Resource Council
- Cuyamaca College Council

Groups that Develop Recommendations

The GCCCD groups that provide recommendations in the decision-making process are organized into three categories based on the group's responsibilities and its source of authority: council, committee and task force. The groups in all three categories are essential to the involvement of the GCCCD community in both being informed about issues of districtwide importance, making decisions, and serving as conduits of information to and from the stakeholders. The membership in each type of group is determined by the source of authority on which the group is based.

Council

Councils are composed of administrators and/or executive representatives of faculty, staff, or student organizations. A council often directs the work of numerous committees or task forces. A council meets regularly and serves as an executive advisory body.

Committee

Committees are composed of a variety of individuals whose scope of work is narrower than a council. A committee reports its recommendations to senior administrators or a council. Committees typically have an ongoing purpose and meet regularly.

Steering committees are charged with overseeing and directing large scale initiatives and may oversee other committees or subcommittees.

Screening and interview committees screen applications for the most appropriately qualified applicants to interview, conduct preliminary interviews, and recommend applicants for final interviews.

Task Force

A task force may be composed of a variety of individuals relevant to its purpose. Task forces are created to address a specific issue and meet until its charge has been completed. Upon conclusion of the task, the group is disbanded.

Protocols for District Participatory Governance

Council and committee meetings may be attended by any interested person from the District or the community as an observer.

Duties of Members

Members of the District councils and committees serve as representatives of their constituencies and as such, voice the perspectives of those they represent as well as provide feedback to their colleagues.

Any council/committee member may place an item on the agenda, bearing in mind that it should address the stated purpose and activities of the respective council/committee.

Attendance is required for members of the District councils/committees and substitutes are permissible with approval of the council/committee chair. The Chancellor may appoint an interim member when a position is vacant. Members are expected to be conversant with issues and are expected to engage in discussion and to express the perspectives of their represented stakeholders. Members are also responsible for keeping stakeholders informed on matters of the council/committee and for soliciting input to inform the decision-making process.

Resource Personnel

The council/committee may enlist the assistance of persons with specialized knowledge or expertise to address specific agenda items. Such persons will be identified as "Resource Personnel" on the agendas and may not address any item on the agenda other than their own unless asked to do so by the councils.

Procedures for District Participatory Governance Councils and Committees

Recommendations of the council/committee to the Chancellor are developed by consensus. If a recommendation from the council/committee requires action by the Board of Trustees, the Chancellor reviews the recommendation and if he/she approves it, forwards it to the Board for their review and approval. If the Chancellor does not concur with the recommendation, then it is either returned to the appropriate council/committee that developed the recommendation with the Chancellor's feedback for further consideration or it is forwarded to the Board with rationale for disapproval from the Chancellor. In reporting to the Board, the Chancellor will provide a full accounting of the varying points of view and share the rationale for the recommendation.

If the recommendation from the council/committee is related to an operational issue or other area of responsibility delegated to the Chancellor by the Board, the Chancellor reviews the recommendations and does one of the following:

- Approves the recommendation and directs implementation
- Makes modifications, directs implementation, and notifies the council/committee about the modification
- Returns the recommendation to the council/committee that developed the recommendation for further consideration

Meeting Notes

Notes of council/committee meetings in the form of meeting summaries are recorded by a designated recorder and subject to review and approval by the council/committee chair. These summaries are posted on the employee Intranet under councils and committees following the meeting.
