Tutoring Services

LEARNING ASSISTANCE

There are three Tutoring Centers at Cuyamaca College. Tutors are available to answer any homework questions, help with student confidence, and support students academically. There are study groups and individual tutoring available for currently enrolled students. Check with the Tutoring Centers for appointments and group tutoring times.

The ARC (Academic Resource Center) provides group and individual tutoring in a wide variety of academic and vocational subjects. Open lab tutoring is available for BOT, CADD, CIS, CISCO and Graphic Design. There is a book-loan program and a space to work on homework. Pathway Academy students can come here for FREE printing.

The STEM Achievement Center provides individual assistance in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics. Students also have access to graphing calculators, textbooks, instructional videos, and computer tutorial programs. STEM Achievement Center provides 36 computers for students to use and printing is available for a minimal cost.

The Writing Center provides tutoring in writing, science writing, and reading. ESL tutoring is provided by appointment only. This Center supports writing needs for all classes. The Writing Center has a computer lab (B-167) available for student use during our hours of operation. In addition, Online Writing Assistance is also available on the Tutoring website: <https://www.cuyamaca.edu/academics/support/tutoring/default.aspx> click on "Writing Assistance." A self-serve resource handout station and source books are also available. Printing is available for a minimal cost.

The purpose of the Sophomore Seminars is to provide presentations throughout the year at Cuyamaca College to inform students of the transfer process/requirements, meeting transfer deadlines, information on financial aid assistance, and guidance with career certificate preparation. Sophomore Seminars also provides second year students with an opportunity to meet academic counselors to review their Comprehensive Educational Plans. Sophomore students will meet with Peer Mentors that are prepared to specifically work with second year students.

Resources for Immigrant Student in Education

ABOUT RISE

Cuyamaca College is committed to equity by standing with and supporting all students who have an undocumented status. Our commitment is focused on providing these students access to all of our available resources, such as admissions and financial assistance, academic and personal counseling, tutoring, mentoring, and a supportive and safe learning environment to achieve their academic goals. The RISE program provides services via campus partnerships established to support and address the needs of our students who have an undocumented status. RISE goals include:

- A collaborative process to provide campus wide support and respond quickly to the evolving needs of RISE students given recent changes to and uncertainties about DACA and AB540/SB 68 policies,
- Develop and scale-up promising practices and emerging resources to better serve RISE students,
- Identify and address further challenges RISE students experience that may hinder their success at Cuyamaca College.

MEET YOUR RISE COUNSELOR

Jennifer Bo

Jen is a first generation college graduate from San Diego, CA. She received her M.S. in Counseling from San Diego State University with an emphasis in mental health recovery and trauma informed care. She currently works as an adjunct counselor in the EOPS program at Cuyamaca College. Jen has diverse experiences working with students in K-12 and in higher education to support students' academic, personal/emotional, and career goals. She is passionate and committed to working with students from an assets-based and student-centered approach.
