The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) indicates that your financial aid history includes one or more of the following issues that must be resolved. Under current federal law, students whose financial aid history includes any of the below issues must provide additional documentation to the Financial Aid Office before their eligibility for financial aid can be determined. Please review your financial aid information to determine your status or visit the Financial Aid Office for assistance.

- To view the information affecting your financial aid, log into www.fafsa.gov and read the COMMENT section of your current year Student Aid Report (SAR).
- To view your financial aid histories go to www.nsls.ed.gov. The same FSA ID and password used to complete a FAFSA will allow you access to NSLDS.

Loan(s) Discharged Due to Disability

Resolution: complete this form and attach a copy of your Notice of Loan Discharge.

NSLDS may indicate that you have a federal student loan that has been discharged or that you are in the process of applying for a Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) discharge of a federal loan.

If you already have a discharged federal student loan and wish to take out a new loan you must also:

- Provide a physician’s certification stating that you have the ability to engage in substantial gainful activity and
- You must understand that by signing this form you acknowledge that the new federal student loan obligation cannot later be discharged for any present impairment unless it deteriorates so that you again are totally and permanently disabled.

If you are in the process of applying for or intend to apply for a Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) of a federal student loan, please be advised that applying for a new loan may cause your TPD discharge to be suspended or may cause your TPD discharge application to be rejected. To determine your options you may schedule an appointment to speak with a Financial Aid Advisor by visiting the Financial Aid Office.

Mismatch on Applicant’s Social Security Number, Name and Date of Birth

Date of Birth: _____ Social Security Number: _____

NSLDS may indicate that you have one or more student loans that may have been obtained fraudulently. You cannot receive any additional federal student aid until this issue has been resolved. It is the student's responsibility to secure documentation proving that the issue has been resolved.

- To resolve this issue you must contact the loan holder.
